

On the left are occupations listed for residents of Phillipsburg NJ in the 1885 and 1895 West's Guide to Easton and Phillipsburg associated with the Morris and Lehigh canals. Can you match the occupation with the description on the right? Use the Study Guide for help. Some Hints: Notice the highlighted words.

Canal Superintendent	A person like a policeman who watches for any illegal activities on canal property.
Harbormaster	A person skilled in machinery design and operation.
Clerk	A person who uses wood in building or repairing bridges, buildings, locks, and Inclined planes.
Collector	Along with a clerk, a keeper of shipping, pay and expense records.
Shipping Agent	A person in charge of the day-to-day operation of a particular large boat basin or harbor .
Bookkeeper	The Captain or person in charge of a canal boat.
Watchman	A person skilled in the design and building of boats.
Engineer	A keeper of shipping and pay records.
Shipwright	A person in charge of a ferry across rivers such as at the Easton to Phillipsburg crossing.
Boat Builder	A collector of tolls for items shipped.
Boat Caulker	A person who actually rides on and operates the ferryboat.
Laborer	A laborer whose skill is in making the wooden boats waterproof.
Carpenter	A person in charge of operating the machinery of an inclined plane such as admitting water to the turbine chamber or reversing the gearing to raise or lower a boat.
Painter	A person in overall charge of a section of the canal.
Canal master	During early operation of the canal this person rode on the plane car to operate the brake mechanism.
Boatman	A person in charge of a maintenance crew that would be building or repairing canal structures.
Ferry master	A term used for any canal worker on a boat. They might even be the mule or horse driver.
Ferryman	A person who paints the canal buildings, boats, bridges or other wooden structures.
Plane Tender	A person who made metal objects for canal buildings and structures. These may include nails, hinges, and other hardware. They also made shoes for mules and horses.
Brakeman	A person who applies shoes to mules and horses. They also cut hooves and attend to the well being of these animals.
Lock Tender	A person who opens or closes the gates and wickets that allows a boat to be raised or lowered at a lock .
Canal Foreman	A person who watches over the goods loaded onto and off of boats.
Blacksmith	A laborer might work on the canal banks, locks, planes, or buildings. They might do dredging, bank repair, weed cutting or other maintenance work as directed. They might also work in stables owned by the canal for the care and feeding of mules and horses.
Farrier	A person skilled in building boats .